

New Hampton Elementary Update

Linda Kennedy, Elementary Principal

May, 2013

Character Counts! At New Hampton Elementary

Pillar for May: All Six Pillars

Professional Development at NHE

Professional Learning Communities are finishing up their collaborative meetings and assessing whether or not their students met the SMART goal they developed earlier.

Blog: You are invited to view Kennedy's Korner Blog for information regarding New Hampton Elementary. <https://nhetimes.blogspot.com>

See May Newsletter (attached)

See Spring MAP scores (attached)

See Character Counts Week Activities (attached)

Parent permissions are being sought for students to participate in the Summer Reading Initiative once again to support their literacy skills throughout the next few months.

Giant Piggy Bank's May Report:

Giant Piggy Bank 175 accounts $131,375.49

Carnival Update:

THIS YEAR'S TOTAL DEPOSITS FOR CARNIVAL ARE $11,386.25

IT WAS A GREAT COMMUNITY EVENT.

Carnival Funding: This year each grade level (PK – 4) enjoyed two quality educational trips, one science experience at Twin Ponds, the Reading Rocks initiative, a Gallagher Bluedorn Production entitled The Boy Who Cried Wolf, and student incentives for each classroom.