New Hampton Community Schools Resolution in support of Project Based Learning

WHEREAS, the New Hampton Community School District Board of Education is committed to providing a well-rounded education so that students can be “empowered to succeed in a changing world” per the district’s mission statement, and

WHEREAS, prior to the pandemic the district had invested heavily in creating authentic learning experiences tied to our community and the world around us through Project Based Learning; and

WHEREAS, now that learning is starting to return to a more normal environment, the district remains committed to Project Based Learning with real world problems that are connected to our community and the world around us. Project Based Learning should not be confused with completing “projects” that are usually tied to a “curriculum” with no real connection to the real world outside the school or classroom.

BE IT RESOLVED that the New Hampton Community School District Board of Education is committed to providing learning experiences that are authentic and connected to the community and world around us. They will do this by continuing to direct the administration and staff to continue implementing Project Based Learning in its schools with the hope of eventually embedding Project Based Learning in the regular classroom environment. In addition, they will also provide the resources necessary so that teachers can implement Project Based Learning in an authentic way and in a real-world environment.

Director Baltes moved to approve the project-based learning plan as presented. Director Denner seconded the motion. Ayes: Baltes, Matthews, Schwickerath, Denner and Rosonke. Nays: None.
