- At the end of August, NH FFA harvested approximately 800# of grapes from the Vineyard by TriMark. They sold about #100 to local customers. The rest they processed into a grape "Mash" that will in turn be made into "Too Good to be Jam" by Clear Creek Orchard in Collins, IA. They have 510# of grape mash that they will process for NH FFA to sell. September 19 and 21 they will be completing a service project for the Kirk Nosbisch family that involves harvesting Indian Corn and preparing it for sale at the Cedar Valley Auction near Riceville. The FFA members are really excited about this project. They had to delay the Bob Svec Memorial Tractor Ride because of the flooding earlier this month.
