Should we attend school on Monday, April 22nd—the day after Easter—and use it as a make-up day?

Considering our March 11 and April 8 Professional Development Days. We would like to have school these days with a 2 hour early dismissal (1:15) and then have all certified staff stay until 5 p.m. those days for PD. We would then have approximately 3 hours of additional PD on your own for a total of 5 additional hours outside the contract—which would count as an additional teacher day that wouldn't have to be made up. In doing it this way, these two days could count as two student days and one additional teacher day that wouldn't have to be made up at the end. Should we do this?
